

“Shindig – “Spaghetti Swing” international tour”

If these mad March winds are getting you down, why not make a date for a bit of indoor spring sunshine, Italian style, at The Fleece Inn on Friday, 28th March at 8:00pm, when our special guests, “Spaghetti Swing” - a ‘50’s style jazz quartet with a difference - bring their unrivalled international tour (courtesy of Bretforton Shindig Committee) to our heated! mediaeval barn.

We still have a few tickets left, priced at £10 per head, so if a combination of cool music and unbridled carbohydrates - as their lead singer and sommelier-chef front man, Fred Brindisi, cooks spaghetti whilst performing on stage, supported by Don on keyboard, “Perez” on drums and singer/dancer, Anidia Lollo - sounds like the kinda great music and hot entertainment with a difference that you wouldn’t wish to miss, don’t wait any longer - call or e-mail me ☺ and reserve those tickets for a night to remember, packed full of passion, pasta and fun ...

Show is suitable for children of 10 years and over.

The “Spaghetti Swing” tour is organized as part of Shindig, Worcestershire’s fantastic programme of live professional arts and entertainment for community venues throughout the country, subsidized by the Arts Council England West Midlands, the County and the Districts.
